71. DEFENDANTS held themselves out to PLAINTIFFS as having special knowledge, experience, skill and expertise to put together investors in partnerships which would be applicants to the FCC for the RSA lotteries, and to prepare and file applications for such partnership that would be in compliance with FCC rules DEFENDANTS furthermore undertook to put together regulations. PLAINTIFFS into a general partnership, QUADRANGLE.

By virtue of having held themselves out as experts in the 72. processing and filing of FCC applications, their undertaking of the putting together of like investors and forming a partnership, their special knowledge, experience, skill and expertise, and PLAINTIFFS' reposing of trust and confidence in their integrity, fidelity and expertise, DEFENDANTS stood in the position of fiduciaries to PLAINTIFFS and were promoters of the investment opportunity.

Over the period of time from putting together like investors and forming the partnership to the present, DEFENDANTS breached their fiduciary duties by failing to structure the partnership in such a way as to comply with the law and FCC regulations.

acting as described above, DEFENDANTS exercise the care required by a promoter in that they acted contrary to their representations and unduly profited from the formation of the partnership and otherwise obtained advantage over PLAINTIFFS in the establishment of the partnership.

As a direct and proximate result of DEFENDANTS' breach, PLAINTIFFS lost the Texas 8-Gaines market it won in the lottery and were damaged when, on November 20, 1991, the FCC issued its final order, dismissing QUADRANGLE'S application as being in violation of

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Breach of the Implied Warranty of Fitness)

- 77. PLAINTIFFS reallege and incorporate herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 76 of this Complaint as though fully set forth below.
- 78. During 1987 and 1988, DEFENDANTS offered PLAINTIFFS an investment opportunity that included "units of applications" to a general partnership, which DEFENDANTS stated to PLAINTIFFS would be the applicant for the RSA lotteries. DEFENDANTS held themselves out to PLAINTIFFS as being experienced, skilled and experts in preparing and filing applications for the RSA markets.
- 79. PLAINTIFFS purchased from DEFENDANTS the investment opportunity, including the units, paying DEFENDANTS over Two Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($220,000.00). In doing so, PLAINTIFFS relied on DEFENDANTS' skill and judgment to provide PLAINTIFFS with units of applications for the RSA lotteries, which the FCC would not reject if the applicant won the lottery; so that there was an implied warranty that the units of applications were fit for the purpose for which they would be used.

- 80. The units were not fit for the purpose for which they were offered because the partnership was composed of general partners who were non-U.S. citizens and as such, the partnership's applications were in violation of the FCC's rules implementing 47 U.S.C. §310(b).
